READY.

It's time to name and own all your 'loves'. What activities (verbs) do you LOVE, and have a natural talent for? Those are the 'loves' you want to own. Here's your chance.

ARTICULATE

Create your LOVE Statements

SET.

Now take it one step further. Choose two of your 'loves' above. Practice creating a coherent statement that inspires you, and will inspire others when you share with them. Be precise - not generic. You are a unique human being with very unique gifts to give. Tell us why. Is there a specific audience you like doing this for or with?
