Live it Challenge

From "I love ..." to "I will ..."

Thank you for joining our 21 Days to LOVE + WORK Experience. We would like to offer you a final challenge to anchor your commitment to giving your love away. Choose one red thread that you know for certain is a source of love, strength, and energy for you — one that you want to move out into the world with more intention. Follow the worksheet to map your ideas for living this out.

STATEMENT HERE
